ABOUT THE SHOW

EVIL DEAD: THE MUSICAL BOOK & LYRICS BY GEORGE REINBLATT

A raunchy, high-energy stage adaptation of the cult classic horror film franchise. Five college students go to an abandoned cabin in the woods, and accidentally unleash an evil force that turns them all into demons. It's all up to Ash, a housewares employee and his trusty chainsaw to save the day. Blood flies. Pure comedy from start to finish, Evil Dead has been compared to The Rocky Horror Show, having fun with horror and appealing to a wide audience. It's the show with the famous "Splatter Zone" – a section of the audience that gets covered in fake blood.

Tiera Lee Watts (Annie)

Tiera Lee Watts is delighted to be back at Magnus Theatre, having previously appeared as Yellow in SHOUT! The Mod Musical.

Originally from Winnipeg and now based in Toronto, Tiera is a graduate of Randolph College for the Performing Arts. Her career has taken her to stages across Canada and around the world having travelled to 56 countries over the span of her career.

Selected theatre credits: Eleanor, u/s Anne/Angélique in & Juliet (First Canadian Company, Mirvish Productions), Elsa in Frozen and Sherrie Christian in Rock of Ages (Rainbow Stage), Marcy in Dogfight (DryCold Productions), Legends of Rock and Hollywood Hits (Stage West), Angie in Dee Snider's Rock & Roll Christmas Tale (Renvoy). Internationally, Tiera has appeared as Diva in Priscilla, Queen of the Desert (Norwegian Cruise Line) and as a Principal Vocalist for various major cruise lines.

Tiera is thrilled to once again share the Magnus stage with this exceptional company Of artists. Love always to her family and friends here, there, and everywhere. Say hi @tieraleewatts

Jeremy Lapalme (Jake, Combat Design, Voice of Knowby)

Since he was last seen in Thunder Bay, Jeremy has performed at the historic Elgin Theatre in Toronto in Fiddler on the Roof IN YIDDISH as well as outdoors in the hilarious hit Spamalot and the romantic comedy Same Time, Next Year alongside his beloved wife (another Magnus Theatre favourite), Gabi Epstein. It is with many happy returns that Jeremy is here at Magnus Theatre, having previously being seen as a villainous ruler trying to hold onto power in Jesus Christ Superstar, a loyal manservant of a diminishing lord in Man of La Mancha, and a hippie dreaming of a lost world in We Will Rock You.

But Evil Dead promises to be his zaniest, wildest, and of course, bloodiest role to date. “So many thanks to Thom, Gillian, Alexis and the incredible team here at Magnus for continuing to let me play and explore and most of all do things that make us laugh. And to this cast made up of consummate professionals and absolute dreams come true: let's get wet!”

Noah Boeckner (Ed)

Noah Boeckner was heavily involved with the musical theatre scene in Thunder Bay growing up; which, inspired him to move to Toronto to train at Randolph College for the Performing Arts. Since graduating, he has been travelling the world as a performer on some of the top Cruise Lines in entertainment (Disney, Norwegian, Princess, Carnival). Noah made his Magnus debut as Matthews in ELF! the Musical, followed by Leaf in Bigfoot! And most recently was seen doing high kicks in Jesus Christ

SuperStar. He is so grateful Magnus is having him back once again. It's always an honour to get to perform in his hometown, spend time with his family, and eat their food.

Rachel Savlov (Ensemble)

Rachel is thrilled to be making her Magnus Theatre debut in Evil Dead! Rachel is a graduate of St Lawrence College/Queen's University's Musical Theatre Program and is currently a vocal teacher at Bravo Academy in Toronto. Favourite credits include: Female Swing in Ride TheCyclone (Tweed & Co), Usherette in The Rocky Horror Show (SLC), Violet in Willy Wonka, Jane in Mary Poppins (The LOT), and Rapunzel in Into the Woods (SMT). Rachel would like to thank the amazing cast and crew for bringing this show to life, and her family and friends for being her biggest fans! She hopes that you enjoy your stay at the cabin in the woods!

Sydney Gauvin (Ensemble)

Sydney is so excited to get spooky and scary in her Magnus Theatre debut as ensemble in Evil Dead! Sydney is an AMDA alumni (New York campus). Previous credits: Olive Ostrovsky in The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee (Tweed & CO.), Woman #1 in First Date (TheatreTO), Iris #3 in Iris (Says Goodbye) (Toronto Fringe/Mixtape Productions) Barb Holland in the Canadian Premiere of Strangers Sings! The Parody Musical (Randolph Theatre), Beth Spencer in Merrily We Roll Along (Shifting Ground Collective). All the love in the world goes to my Mom, Dad and Joshua, I am surrounded by so much love and support. I could not do any of this without them and my whole community

Hanna Laaksonen (Set Designer)

Hanna is totally tickled to be a part of the inaugural season of Magnus' Studio Theatre. A professional production artist for the past decade, Hanna has been fortunate enough to have worked across a multitude of theatrical disciplines including wardrobe, props and scenic paint. She has designed sets, props and special effects for productions, installations, and events from Ontario to Canada's east coast.

Originally from Thunder Bay, Hanna has been making stage magic running the props department at Neptune Theatre in Halifax for the last 4 years. Getting to spend some time creating with the fabulous and innovative artists here is an absolute dream. A huge congrats to all involved in making this venue and programming possibleCelebrate the arts! Support the arts! And above all else, Delight in the arts

Matthew Lawler (Lighting Designer)

Matthew is a graduate of the National Theatre School of Canada Production Design and Technical Arts program, a young designer who works across all disciplines of Lighting from large scale Music Festivals and Concert Touring to Theatre and Dance. Matthew's artistic thesis is to pull styles from across all these disciplines to make each design truly unique. I'd like to thank Maddy, Cam and Julia for their love and support.

Lighting Designer for Legally Blonde directed by Alexandra Herzog at Rainbow Stage (2026), Wake the Giant Music Festival (2026), Winnipeg Folk Festival Mainstage (2026), Winnipeg's Canada Day Celebration for CBC (2026), The Grey Cup Concert Series (2025). Gillian Jones (Stage Manager)

This is my bio all about how, my life got flipped turned upside down and I'd like to take a moment before the show starts to tell you how I became involved in the live arts. In North Thunder Bay, I was born and raised. On a playground is where I spent most of my days. Chillin out max and relaxin all cool, but never shootin' B-ball outside of the school. When a couple of folks who were up to some good, started a rehearsal in my neighbourhood offering me a job at Magnus Theatre

Jean-Paul De Roover (Bass/Guitars)

Jean-Paul is no stranger to the stage having studied music and performed as a child around the world before graduating from Lakehead University in 2009. A talented musician, songwriter, and producer he has toured across North America and Europe, sharing stages with artists such as the Beach Boys, the Goo Goo Dolls, Said the Whale, Beardyman and more, showcasing his work at multiple international music festivals (including Canadian Music Fest and NXNE).

His music and videos have been featured on CBC, MuchMusic, reviewed in Exclaim, Earshot! and The Georgia Straight and charted on campus radio stations nationwide. De Roover’s constantly evolving palate has seen him exploring his earnest acoustic singer-songwriter side on “Love” (2019) as well as his passion for emotionally and aurally heavy alternative and progressive rock on the follow-up album, “Loss” (2020).

When he’s not performing live or parenting, De Roover can be found in his studio, Blueprints, where he not only recorded his latest albums but also works with the music, film, and television industries as a producer, composer and engineer. Visit jeanpaulderoover.com and blueprintsaudio.com.

David A. Brown (Head Carpenter)

David joined Magnus in 2019 as the Head Carpenter after working as the canoe builder/shipwright at Old Fort William for 40 years.

Dave wore many hats while at the Fort, building canoes and boats. He has been involved in many movie and television productions, from an IMAX production in the early 1980's to many commercials and print productions, appearing in National Geographic and the National Enquirer in the same year. He was heavily involved in "The Haunted Fort" building props, animatronic effects and lighting as a licensed pyrotechnician. Dave is getting used to building square and level; he would still like everything to be curved like a canoe or boat.

Lisa Macchione (Head of Wardrobe)

Lisa is a passionate devotee of the performing arts and all things adornment. In 1999 she graduated from Seneca College's Fashion Arts program and has had the opportunity to use her skills in costuming to work on set of local films, historical reenactments, as well as her own performance art. Researching characters, creating one-of-a-kind pieces, and the spark of a thrift store treasure hunt are what she enjoys most. She is thrilled to be a part of the team at Magnus Theatre.

Nadia Cheechoo (Head of Props)

Nadia Cheechoo is an Indigenous woman from Wik-wemikong, Ontario. She is back at Magnus Theatre, adding yet another position to her repertoire. She has had previous props experience working in film, but this is her first time in this position at Magnus. With carpentry and wardrobe already under her belt, she's ready to continue honing old and new skills. Then she plans to carry those skills into future shows, theatres, and film projects. Magnus Theatre has been a major stepping stone in her career as an artist, and she hopes to continue to share her skills with them and others.

Sarah Furlotte (Production Assistant)

Thunder Bay-based artist and production professional, Sarah Furlotte holds an Honours Bachelor of Fine Arts and brings nearly two decades of experience in theatre and film to the team. Furlotte returned to the Magnus Theatre production team after a 16 year Hiatus where she served as Props Coordinator and Set Painter.

As a practicing visual artist for many years, Furlotte has developed A reputation for her skills as a fabricator and designer her early career included an apprenticeship in Theatre set design At the Arts Club Theatre which laid the foundation for a transition into production design for film.

In the film industry, Furlotte has taken on diverse roles including wardrobe, Artistic Director and a Position as the Production Design teacher for the film program at Confederation College. Her multidisciplinary experience allows her to approach each project with versatility, creativity, and a deep understanding of visual narrative.

Alex Pilon (Scenic Painter)

Alex Pilon grew up in Quebec and spent over a decade in British Columbia, where he built a dynamic career in the arts. With a background in Fine Arts and training in hair design from Nelson, BC, he brings a unique blend of technical skill and creative flair to his work.

He joined the Magnus Theatre team in March as a scenic painter, where he is excited to help bring stories to life through bold and imaginative environments. Throughout his career, he has remained deeply involved in theatre, both onstage and behind the scenes.

While living in BC, he contributed to a variety of productions, including a street puppet show celebrating Canada's 150th anniversary, where he worked as both painter and director. No matter the role, he is always driven by a love of storytelling and visual expression.

THE NEXT STAGE PROJECT CONTINUES!

Magnus Theatre has thrived as Northwestern Ontario's only professional theatre since 1971. With increased demand for programming and arts spaces, Magnus Theatre continues its' mission to enhance arts possibilities within our community.

The Next Stage Project began to restore, upgrade, and expand the Magnus Theatre facility to meet the emerging needs of the community. So far, the project has seen the addition of a brand-new Studio Theatre, expansion and upgrade of all production facilities, an overhaul of the building HVAC systems, all-new public washrooms, lounge, and youth classrooms, all done while carefully maintaining and respecting the heritage features of the Historic Central School. The project continues, as we endeavour to make our heritage building greener and energy efficient, with plans to replace windows, improve the parking lot, convert stage lighting to environmentally friend LED fixtures and upgrade all hearing-assist systems.

The Next Stage Project has been funded in part by the Government of Canada, FedNor, the Northern Ontario Heritage Fund Corporation, the Trillium Community Building Fund, the Trillium Resilient Communities Fund, TBXI and the Thunder Bay CEDC. The project continues to be supported by many private donors and sponsors who believe strongly that professional arts are an integral part of a strong and healthy community.

If you would like to get involved in supporting Magnus Theatre's Next Stage Project and in strengthening the arts scene in Northwestern Ontario, please reach out to Glenn Coulson, Magnus Theatre's Director of Development at Glenn.Coulson@magnustheatre.com, or call 807-345-8033.

A Romantic Comedy by Joelle Peters

It's summertime on the rez. Lenna, the youngest of the Little family, is preparing to leave home for her first year of college, with little enthusiasm or help from her stubborn father and reckless brother. Amidst lingering doubts about departing the family flock, Lenna collides into a meet-cute with the charming and awkward Sam Thomas, who is returning to the reserve after many years away. With the promise of a romance budding between them, Lenna is caught in a whirlwind of uncertainty, wondering if she's ready to bid farewell just as she's about to take flight. A true romantic comedy, Niizh is a refreshing coming-of-age romcom about two young lovebirds leaving the nest.
